Now where do I begin? Mallory Monroe I look forward to buying your books if I could only buy books from just one author it would be your books. Now I love how Big Daddy stepped up to the plate and went gangster. This is where Mick gets his bada$$ from. I am so in love with Trevor, and he loves his girl.

Ok, Mallory Monroe you opened up a can of worms, you know I want to know more about Angelo plus he is related to the Sinatras. I hope to see more of Trevor and Angelo in your books. The Gabrinis show their loyalty all the time. Well done you and your books rock. Now, I a going to reread this book,

Big Daddy and Brother and Nephews - WOW!

By sjoyce

I can't remember the last time that I gave a Monroe book five stars even though I love all of them for the most part. I don't think that I've even given books with Tommy in it four stars but I need to review the last book about Tommy for it certainly deserves 5 stars. I was more interested in the review of Barkbad, who is an excellent reviewer. I loved this book, as I do any of the books with Reno, Tommy, Sal, Mick and Charles working together. I wish I had some uncles like them. Two problems: one, the book is too short even though full of action; and the second problem is how did they know about Trevor to pick him up in Las Vegas. I must have missed something, or were they looking for him at the places on the list? I think Reno and Tommy gansta as Mick and Sal, if not more. Now we find out that Charles also has it in him. I could say a lot about this book but don't want to spoil it. Can't wait for the next book.

Didn't miss a beat from the last couple of books!!!

I made the "good" mistake of checking late last night to see if "Papa Don't Play" was released and found that it was. What did that mean? That I had to have it and had to read it all in one night!!! Sitting here at work bleary eyed and still pumped from the book!!! To me, this is the "best" of the "family get togethers"!! Big Daddy is Big Daddy is Big Daddy!!!! Loved, loved, loved the story. Definitely a must read and is the best of Charles Sinatra!!! Story was well developed; sex scenes were just right; Jenay didn't have to get totally gangster; and Mr. Trevor was the man Charles needed him to be for his Carly. Again, loved, loved, loved the story!!!
