Reading about Bertie and Jeeves is like meeting with family on relaxed weekends

By Amazon Customer

So enjoyable. So very comforting. Reading about Bertie and Jeeves is like meeting with family on relaxed weekends.

Ripping, I say, what? Absolutely.

By Vivek Hurry

The man never ceases to amaze and entertain. I re-read these for undoubtedly the umpteenth time since first cutting my teeth on them at the tender age of thirteen or thereabouts, and I still had a goofy grin on my face throughout interspersed with frequent guffaws, slapped knees and countless chuckles. The English language hasn't seen a finer writer before or since. Must make all the other writers feel like frightful chumps.

Dashed entertaing way to spend the hours....

By Terence Greeks

I came to savor the written works of P. G. Wodehouse and his creation Jeeves with a not completely clean palate, as it were. My views have been informed by large helpings of the TV series "Jeeves & Wooster", and the very distinct characterizations presented so well by Stephen Fry and Hugh Laurie respectively.

So it comes as a great pleasure - and a not so small little relief - to find that the source material is even more entertaining. Well worth the read, to the point I'll be purchasing other volumes of these works.

As for the Kindle formatting of this book - there are no problems at all with the version I bought.

All in all, this is highly recommended. And a bargain at the price.
