When Paul and Laurie, the free spirited woman who raised him, end up sharing the house alone for a weekend, a couple of unexpected, irresistible complications push their relationship into lustful new territory. Laurie has an open mind, and when she joins up with a new religious group with very liberal opinions on social boundaries, Paul begins to see a totally new side of her.

The house ends up filled with new age, spiritual women, all of them interested in seeing just how achingly hard they can make Paul before he gives in to the temptation all around him. The situation only gets more intense and wild as the group prepares for a strange ritual that focuses on the full realization of the innate, primal urges and pleasures of the body. At the center of it are Paul and Laurie, with nothing but their own diminishing willpower standing between them and committing the ultimate forbidden act.

A Fun Taboo Story

By Sparta

The author wrote a clever short-story that involved an open-minded women's group that meets at a teenage boy's house for the first time, his mother belongs to the group. You are quickly thrust into the boy's point of view of the group's strange behavior. He quickly finds himself surrounded by sexually hungry women.

It was a fun, light-hearted read, which I could see myself re-reading in the future.
